Company Statement

During these difficult times, Coronavirus (Covid-19) continues to be a risk to all. Farrell Transport Limited is committed to keeping our staff, customers, suppliers, and local communities updated on our response to the pandemic.

We are following all the guidance and advice currently being provided by the UK Government, Public Health England, the HSE, and NHS; which, along with additional feedback from our trade associations such as the RHA, is enabling us to keep everyone as safe as possible whilst continuing to perform our essential services of keeping vital supplies moving throughout the UK.

Our approach continues to be focussed on:

- Maintaining the well-being of all our staff, customers, and visitors to our depots
- Working with our customers; making any necessary amendments to enable them to continue or restart trading.
- Ensuring our suppliers are treated fairly and in manner consistent with pre-covid conditions
- The use of contingent funds for investment in improvements to current infrastructure
- Taking a responsible approach to business management and the long term future of the company.

Already we have enabled home-working wherever possible for our staff, ceased non-essential practices, or taken mitigating actions to reduce or remove the risk of key activities – and our plans remain under constant review as the situation changes.

Our responsibility in supporting the needs of all our customers and local communities is felt deeply by everyone within Farrell Transport Limited; and we are all working hard to ensure we keep goods moving in the UK in the safest way possible.

Thank you for your support and cooperation during these unprecedented times.
